ct 60 seemed to be taken as a signal for profit-taking on a very large scale, in the early stages of the present campaign for the rise in United States Steel, advocates of the movement claimed, it would not culminate until it had touched 60. The price predicted has been advanced from time to time since then, but evidently the suspicion was widespread that the fulfilling of the first prediction might mark the objective of the campaign. Copper rose in price at the local metal exchange. Recognized authorities regarding crop conditions gave flattering accounts of improvement of the winter wheat during the last week, of the highly satisfactory progress of the spring wheat sowing, and of the early condition of the pant. There was some ground for sup-posing that large orders in the market yesterday and early today were designed

At the high point both July and September were more han 1 cent above the previous close, but his gain was materially reduced in the final hour. The May option again sold at 1.30, the high point of the season.  The market at the opening was bullishly affected by an advance of 140%d at Liverpool, due, it was said, to an estimate on the amount of wheat which will be exported from Argentina this week, which was placed at about one-third the novement of the corresponding week a rear ago. It was also expected that shipments from Australia for the week would be very light. Bullish sentiment was further augmented by adverse crop respects from France and Germany. These factors, however, were partially offset by more favorable reports from Kansas. City claiming a very dull trade in flour. The range of July was between 1.151% and 1.16. With the approach of summer we are confronted with the eternal question, "what to drink." The market becomes flooded with beverages, in many cases the only thing in their favor being that they are wet. Why not choose a drink that is at once delightful, refreshing and beneficial? We refer to FISHER BEER

Here you have a glass of something that is more than a mere "concoction." It is a scientific brew, made from pure, health-giving barley malt and hops; blended, not by guesswork, but according to well established, successfully proven principles.
